

BUSINESS GIRLS.

When the business girl arrives at the office she takes her things off, but in a New York heat wave she takes off more things than usual. The big chief in this office doesn't mind --- in fact he rather likes it. He says it's healthy for the girls, and the men work for less money. We haven't heard yet what the big chief's wife says about it. Anyway, if the idea spreads, the old excuse about working late at the office is likely to have some truth in it..

MODEL SHIP^s

Littleton, Massachusetts --- another trans-Atlantic liner makes her maiden voyage. A giant floating hotel, rival of the Queen Mary and the Normandie. What speed will she do? Will she try for the Blue Riband of the Atlantic? Ask the captain.

WATER WALKING.

The latest water sport --- walking on the water. If the roads get too crowded for hiking this summer a pair of water skis will enable you to walk across the Channel. The only trouble is that if you fall down, by the time ~~that~~ you get up again the week-ends ~~is~~ ^{over.}

C.E.A. GARDEN PARTY.

Film Chiefs relax at the annual Conference, held this year at Eastbourne. An exhibition and garden party were features of the gathering at which our Cinema executives take time off from amusing you and amuse themselves.
