

QUEEN MARIE OF RUMANIA.

263

A royal visitor to England --- Queen Marie of Rumania who is staying with Lady Dering at her home, Hamptons, in Kent. With the Queen are three of her grandchildren --- a happy domestic picture.

EMPIRE FLYING BOATS.

29

Here are some of the/giant flying boats newly built for Britain's commercial aviation. Costing a total of two million pounds, weighing 18 tons each --- these represent an important step in our belated bid for a place in the skies.

U.S.ARTILLERY.

American artillerymen try out a new long range against an imaginary enemy ten miles out at sea. Uncle Sam seems to fancy long range guns, but if he makes them any longer it'll bring him close enough to Europe to join the League of Nations.
