SWIMMING AT UXBRIDGE.

Some of Britain's Olympic hopes took part in the events at this swimming meeting, and here is a display of diving that is well up to standard. / England met Ireland in a water-polo international / now watch this complete and thrilling movement that gave England one of the eleven goals of her victory. / ~~Swimming becomes increasingly popular,~~ / and here is a million-dollar ~~swimming~~ pool that New York City has built for slum kiddies . With a heat-wave temperature of 102.3 in the shade --- they need it.

SEMPILL.

Lord Sempill and his crew prepared to leave Hanworth <sup>on a</sup> ~~for a~~ ~~three-day~~ <sup>record</sup> flight to Australia, but bad luck compelled them to give up on the first day.

KING'S CUP.

But here is the start of the King's Cup Air Race. 200 mile-an-hour planes entered on a round-England dash from Hatfield included Tommy Rose as pilot --- while another entry was in the name of ~~His Royal Highness~~ the Duke of <sup>Kent.</sup> ~~York.~~ / In the final day's flying only fourteen pilots were left to compete over the triangular course in Hertfordshire. A terrific battle between the first four ~~pilot~~ planes ended with a victory for Charles Gardener from Tommy Rose, Flight Lieutenant Wilson third and Captain Perceval fourth in the Duke of Kent's plane. The winner maintained an average speed of 164 miles an hour.
