

CLYDE ANGLO-AMERICAN YACHTING.

nb5

On the Clyde is the ^{Anglo-} ~~British~~ American ^{Yacht} Race. The American six-metre yacht Indian Scout made a dramatic dash from Norway to be in time ^{to enter} and she won her race on a day of sparkling sunshine and leaping spray.

ETON AND HARROW?

The annual cricket match between the two famous English public schools is second only to Ascot as a display of fashion and beauty. This year, though fashion smiled, the weather was ungrateful --- rain fell to send frilly frocks a-scurrying ~~and masculine gowns and britches~~ under the protection of masculine brollies. We haven't said anything about men's fashions, but for smart wear in the wet --- how's this? Just to prove that the weather and fashions did not eliminate cricket entirely we'll show you a bit of the cricket, but I say, old man --- have you seen that stinker Cholmondley? He's got a marvellous sister.

WOLVERHAMPTON. Floral Fete.

Wolverhampton Floral Fete is more than a fete and more than a flower show --- they have in addition most exciting events including some spectacular jumping by cleverly-trained horses.
