

RC 212
Jan 1, 1900
268
MAUGHAM WEDDING.

1
St Margaret's Westminster --- Miss Lisa Maugham, daughter of Somerset Maugham ~~the famous author and dramatist~~, was married to Mr Vincent Paravicini, son of the Swiss Minister. The little attendants were dressed as soldiers of yesterday --- and even the very charming bridesmaid wore the marks of battle.
PUPPIES.

2
Eleven little pups in one family is enough for any mother to worry about, but luckily these dachshunds are able to keep ~~thm~~, themselves amused with their friend the bunny rabbit. / Ger-cha!
On bath-night mother just hangs them out to dry --- eleven of them, unless these old eyes deceive me!

FILM STARS.

4
The Normandie arriving at Southampton brought to Britain four well-known ~~people~~ members of the entertainment world --- Bert Wheeler, the comedian, Ruth Etting, radio star, Irving Berling the composer and Edward Everett Horton <sup>with new moustache</sup> -- well, fancy that now!
BATHING BEAUTIES BATHCHAIRS.

3
When we are old we hope we may be pulled <sup>round the town</sup> / ~~about~~ like this .
American is adopting the idea from the Orient and sees the ~~xxx~~ seaside from a rickshaw, so this parade was put on to encourage young ~~men~~ men to live to be a hundred. / Can you imagine anything better, down by the rolling sea?