

BERNARD SHAW.

Mr Bernard Shaw is as full of life as ever on his eightieth birthday, celebrated at the Malvern Theatrical Festival.

HERBERT WEDDING.

The Duke and Duchess of Gloucester and the Duchess of Kent attended the wedding at Westminster of Lord Herbert and Lady Mary Hope, and the Duke of Kent was best man. Lord Herbert is equerry to the Duke and Lady Mary is lady-in-waiting to the Duchess. The bridegroom is the son of the Earl and Countess of Pembroke and his bride the daughter of the late Marquess of Linlithgow and sister of the present Viceroy of India. She wore a gown of heavy white satin with a train eight yards long, and her attendants were ten in number.

OXFORD GROUP.

In camp at Castle Bromwich near Birmingham are 400 men of all creeds, classes and nationalities, but with one idea --- to remake the world. It sounds a good idea. These men belong to the Oxford group whose aim is to persuade you to make ~~the world~~ the world a better place by first making yourself better. This process is expressed by the founder, Dr Frank Buchman in most topical language.
