

60,000 PIGEONS.

272

The Up-North Combine Liberation of Pigeons --- approximately sixty thousand birds were released from their baskets ~~approximately~~ at the same time. Most of the birds are given a drink before they start their long flight. All of them need one when they get there

BRIGHTON LIFEGUARDS.

Brighton has installed a lifeguard corps on its famous beach, so if you feel like getting into conversation with a handsome stranger there you know what to do. <sup>But</sup> For this rescue, ~~however,~~ a policeman did the deed, and went into the water fully clothed to effect a rescue ~~from the water,~~ It's all part of a policeman's job, and they aren't even allowed to look dashing in a swim-suit. A little bit around the coast during the August winter Bank holiday was the Ramsgate Flea Race. ~~I~~ --- what's the matter with these people? --- It was a rally of the latest baby aeroplanes, the Flying Fleas. This sport is getting quite catching. These little fellows not only jump --- they fly. No wonder ~~was~~ so many entries in the King's Cup Air Race had to scratch. After the flying fleas came the bird man --- Britain's own stunt merchant, Harry Ward. He didn't go up this time because the weather didn't permit. The only sport this summer weather permits is a cold in the head. But there's just as much danger on the ground if you know where to find it. He doesn't mind --- so we'll send him back again to do it in slow motion. ~~When he does, he now jumps through the sheets of~~ His name is Derek Carter, and his hobby is trying again. Here he goes once more, in slow motion.
