

Brilliant athletics in the Olympic Games have not been confined to men. ¹ In the women's hundred metres Helen Stephens was the winner --- and she has set up a new world record with 11 5/10 seconds. For the long jump the wonder negro Jesse Owens put up a terrific effort of 26 feet 5 1/4 inches. ~~Fitly he takes another gold medal and the~~ ~~100 metres final~~ --- a finish fought out ~~in~~ a terrific ^{was second} duel between Woodruff and Lanzi. Woodruff the taller figure ~~led~~ ^{to Lanzi but he overtook him} ~~at~~ the three-quarter mark ~~and her Lanzi overtook him~~ --- ~~but~~ with a colossal effort Woodruff strode out into first place to break the tape four-tenths of a second in front. ² 200 metres --- Jesse Owens again proved himself to be one of the great sprinters of all time ¹ the crowd roared approbation as the ebony streak flashed ahead to break another record --- to win a third gold medal and another crown of laurels. ~~Follow the classic discus on its record flight of 165 feet 7 1/2 inches;~~ ~~and the javelin --- another Herculean throw measuring 224 feet 6 inches.~~ ³ The Pole Vault provided yet one more Olympic record --- 14 feet 3 1/4 inches was the winning jump ~~and now follow a leap with a slow motion camera's eye --- poetry of motion engraved upon a cloud.~~ Britain came brilliantly into the Olympic Games Picture with a win by H.H. Whitlock in the long distance walk --- approximately ~~21~~ 31 miles in 4 hours 30 minutes 41 seconds --- another record. And as a glorious finish Jack Lovelock --- New Zealand contribution to the Empire's athletes --- watch that black-clad wizard running easily and with plenty in reserve --- and marvel that he is actually establishing a new ~~record~~ world record --- 1500 metres in 3 minutes, 47 8/10ths seconds. Herr Hitler and 100,000 spectators paid tribute to the world's greatest miler with a mass salute to God Save the King.

to jump at

2 →

1 →

3 →

Pole

OLYMPIC GAMES (Contd.)

The Pole Vault provided yet one more Olympic Record --- 14 feet $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches was the winning jump ~~A-~~ and now follow a leap with the eye of a slow motion camera --- poetry of motion engraved upon a cloud.

110 metres Hurdles --- Towns U.S.A. was the winner with Britain's D.O. Finlay second. Watch them in Slow Motion / And a feat in that speed

The Javelin --- a Herculean throw measuring 224 feet 6 inches.

Follow the classic discus on its record flight of 165 feet ~~23~~ $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

Britain came brilliantly into the Olympic Games picture with a win by H.H. Whitlock in the long distance walk --- approximately 31 miles in 4 hours 30 minutes 41 seconds --- another record. And as a glorious finish Jack Lovelock --- New Zealand contribution to the Empire's ~~athletes~~ athletes --- watch that black clad wizard of the track running easily, with plenty in reserve; marvel that he is actually establishing a new world record --- 1500 metres in 3 minutes, 47 $\frac{8}{10}$ ths seconds. The world's greatest miler received his crown while Herr Hitler and 100,000 spectators paid tribute with a mass salute to God Save the King.

Warm have