

HAT FASHIONS.

277

Here are some charming hats for the Autumn - high crowns and narrow brims being the keynote of these attractive models. Egypt, land of Mystery, supplies this design, while this is a Napolean idea - no doubt she will meet her Waterloo!

And here are a few domesticated ideas borrowed from pretty maids in Australia. Will this fashion note spread to the old country -

YACHTING.

Always popular with yachtsmen and visitors alike, Brixham held its annual Regatta for its famous trawlers under ideal weather conditions.

But in New England's mid-summer yachting, a favourable breeze speeds hundreds of yachts on their way to compete in the Marblehead Regatta.

RUSSIAN TRIAL.

Behind the walls of this beautiful building in Moscow, Zinovieff and other Soviet officials are standing their trial for plotting against the life of Stalin.

Many more Leaders are implicated in the conspiracy and Zinovieff has admitted his guilt.

Trotsky is said to have given final instructions against the life of Stalin.

The people have demanded the death sentence ^{on} of Leo Kamenev, a veteran of the Russian revolution.