

SARATOGA RACE.

279

The Travers^{Stakes} at Saratoga Springs is a social event and all American society attends. They're off --- in the picturesque surroundings of the Spa Racecourse, and Gallant Fox the favourite takes the lead. But a colt named Granville upset the punters' expectations by coming in first, after being beaten by Gallant Fox on several previous occasions. There must be something in the Spa waters after all, even if they do taste of hot flatirons.

WEDDING AT WESTMINSTER.

One of the most charming weddings the famous Abbey has seen for many a day --- the bridegroom Lieutenant the Honorable Richard Coleridge and his bride Miss Rosamund Fisher, ~~daughter of the~~ ~~Commander in Chief Portsmouth.~~ The attendants were four young --- ~~what~~ wouldn't his sisters ^{like} give for those curls? ----- four young pages dressed in the Nelson period, so they ^{turned a blind eye to} ~~ignored~~ Mother's signal about the ~~wedding~~ cake.

KING'S HOLIDAY.

Our cameraman at Athens secured this informal glimpse of his Majesty landing from the yacht Nahlin ~~at Athens~~ during his holiday visit there. With the King is the British Ambassador. Once again we wish his Majesty a happy holiday and a well earned rest.
