The yacht Nalin in Turkish waters brought King Edward VIII to Istanbul in the closing stages of his holiday. On shore his Majesty was greeted by Kenal Ataturk , the head of the Turkish Republic, and officials of the Turkish Government, afterwards paying a visit to the Palace. During his stay ~~later~~ in Vienna the King visited the Austrian National Exhibition of Industry. As ever, His Majesty showed a lively interest in all he saw and his ~~stay~~ <sup>visit</sup> here will long be remembered by all the citizens of the gay capital.

TENNIS.

America's National Doubles Finals humbled the reigning tennis stars and put up new champions in their places. Helen Jacobs, ~~re~~ recognisable by her striped shorts, partnered by Mrs Fabyan, lost to Caroline Babcock and Mrs van Ryn by two sets to one. Now for the men. Budge and Mako on the far side met the title-holders, Allison and van Ryn. Tennis at its best --- furious volleying and ~~thrilling~~ rallies. Budge serving now from this side sends down a hot one --- and see what happened to Allison. Now the challengers are only one point from victory --- and watch them get it!

HAIR FASHIONS.

Latest examples of hairdressing sent by our cameramen from abroad seem to indicate that the world crisis is worse than we thought. The inspiration is drawn partly from the 18th/19th century --- Madame Recamier --- and partly from the twentieth --- Mrs Bloggs. Abyssinia, of all places, sends a contribution to the ~~war~~ world's ideas on coiffure. It doesn't seem to be the most important thing that must be happening in Addis Ababa, but here it is.

But Congratulations to Ted Perry ---
British winner of the American puzzle!
