

BEEES .

Stingless Bees! Whatever it is that makes them behave, Henry Brown of New Jersey has it. He's trained thirty-five million of them and they all come when they're called. Luckily they like the pictures, otherwise we shouldn't have had this one of the man with the living beard. His daughter is the ideal girl to take on a picnic. To think that you and ZI make a fuss about a little bee!

SURBITON CHARTER.

A wreath laid upon the war memorial and a flag unfurled began the first Charter granted in the reign of King Edward the Charter Celebrations at which Surbiton became a Borough, / The <sup>Lord</sup> Lieutenant of Surrey, Colonel Lord Ashcombe, and Lady Ashcombe, arrived to inspect the Guard of Honour and hand over the Charter to the Charter Mayoress, Mrs H.S.Durbin.

IRVING THALBERG.

Not only Hollywood but the entire film world and the general public mourn the loss of Irving Thalberg,, the brilliant producer who has died at the early age of 37. In showing these pictures, taken a few years ago, we extend our sympathy to his widow, Norma Shearer.

GARDEN FETE.

A garden fete in aid of Mt Vernon Cancer Hospital was held at ~~Mark~~ Northwood and attended by the famous. Lady Knollys and Lady Vansittar looked on while Mr C.B.Cochran played hoop-la and the nurses played whoopee. Sir Cuthbert Wallace, President of the Royal College of Surgeons, was another distinguished spectator.
