shelled by the insurgentia army's artillery and bombed by its 'planes, captured Irun new presents a sorry spectacle. San Sebastian too has fallen, but the holdday resort known to so many foreign visitors as a gay and beautiful place has not shared the fate of Irun --- Ser Prostien still bears some recomblence to its for the Government forces in triumph, were greeted with wild egeering by the civilian population which had sided with the insurgents against the Government.

tragedy so overwhelming as to defy description. The historic fortress of the Alcazar, and examined blown to pieces with 1100 souls inside it.

BROOKLANDS.

Crowds at Brooklands watched a terrific battle between the leading drivers --- and to-day the leading drivers include many laddes. But the laurels for the five hundred miles go to the men --- Freddie Dixon in No. 12 hurled himself round the track to win Now see how Colorado holds a hill-climb. Pike's Peak is 14,000 feet up and the winner got to the top in sixteen and a half minutes. What he did then we don't know because there's nothing to do when you get there. But higher still were his 'planes competing in the Thomson Trophy. The distance was 150 miles, the speed was 300 miles an hour and the winner was a Frenchman. The Trophy was presented by Eddie Cantor.
