

Chelsea were on top when they met the blue and white striped Albion team at Stamford Bridge. Attacking strongly from the start, they peppered the visitors goal to the delight of the crowd of forty thousand, and then Oakton opened the scoring. With the half-time score one-nil in favour of Chelsea the second period was full of incident and then Gibson put the London club further ahead. Before the final whistle Oakton added another to make the result ~~xxxxxxx~~ Chelsea three Albion Nil.

D. AND D. OF KENT.

Crumping the Duke & Duchess of Kent to

The Liner Heracles <sup>abroad</sup> arriving at Croydon from Paris indicated that ~~xxxxx~~ another royal holiday/was over. ~~The Duke and Duchess of Kent said they~~ <sup>had had</sup> ~~thoroughly enjoyed their Continental tour.~~ After a short stay in London their destination was Scotland where they intended to stay for a short visit while King Edward was at Balmoral.

MRS MARKHAM.

City Hall, New York --- Mayor La Guardia does the honours for Mrs / <sup>Markha,.</sup>

PEACE PROCESSION.

200,000 war veterans of all nations met in the Pyrenees for this great procession --- their purpose to say Mass, and to pray for the peace of the world.

FAN FASHIONS.

Our fashion Editress has sent over from Paris the latest models in fans -- they include fans for tea time, fans for the evening and --- oh, la la! Fans for hunting. In Leicestershire it isn't considered quite ~~in~~ the thing. After all, ~~if foxhunting~~ you say the fox has scent. ~~xxxxx~~ <sup>perhaps</sup> But in Paris, apparently, they hunt a gorgonzola.