The cream of American girlhood on parade to find the ideal girl for 1936. It also serves to find out whether gentaemen still prefer blondes. Is it a change of heart or just an accident --- Miss America for 1936 is a brunette!

Blonde or brunette --- it doesn't matter what you are at Olympia's Hair and Beauty Fair. This is some of the work in the Fantasy Headdress Competition. Bit awkward for going to the pictures Fancy trying to get a beret on that! At last a woman's crowning glory really is a crown, but a man only gets crowned with a bottle.
