

WEDDING OF B.P.'s DAUGHTER.

287

~~The Chief Scout~~ ~~Lord Baden Powell~~ The Chief Scout gave away his daughter, Miss Betty Baden Powell, at her wedding to Mr Gervas Clay. The ceremony took place at the picturesque ~~village~~ church of St Mary's, in the Hampshire village of Bentley, and the large number of spectators who attended were a tribute alike to the charm of the bride and the popularity of that grand old man -- B.P. After the ceremony the bride and groom --- followed by their parents, returned to Pax Hill for the reception.

SKI-ING AT KOSCIUSKO.

When the ski-ing experts start it's a sign of winter, even if the pictures come from the other side of the world. Here are some instructors at the first meeting teaching the beginners how to ski and how to fall. Slow motion shows how gracefully the expert takes off --- even if it doesn't last.

But with roller skatin you keep nearer the ground. Here are fourteen teams of boys and girls on a two thousand mile race in New York. Wouldn't it be terrible if the one in front went down? Now in a sprint last year's ^{winner} ~~leader~~ tries to overtake the leaders. Nineteen laps to the mile --- eight hours at a stretch --- how on earth can they keep up?
