

SQUADRON LEADER SWAIN.

289

We have persuaded the modest hero of the nine and a half mile altitude record flight to say a few words about his great achievement. DONINGTON PARK.

Kaye Don was an old favourite who came back to competitive motor racing in the International Grand Prix at Donington Park. Over twenty other drivers took part in this race through the ~~pictures~~ picturesque parkland whose dells and trees echoed once more with the roar of exhaust, the whine of tyre-tread and the scream of brake. ~~and~~ / No. 12 was the winner --- R.J.B. Seaman, and Kaye Don will have to seek his old form at another meeting.

GUARDS WEDDING.

The Guards Chapel at Wellington Barracks was scene of a charming wedding when Miss Ann Quilter was married to Major Lionel Bottle-Wilbraham. The bridegroom's regiment is the Coldstream Guards, and the little pages were dressed in the uniform of two centuries ago.

LORD DUNGLASS. WEDDING.

At Durham Cathedral ~~Cathedral~~ was the impressive ceremony which joined in matrimony Lord Dunglass, ~~an~~ heir of the Earl of Home, and Miss Elizabeth Alington, daughter of the Dean of Durham, who was formerly Headmaster of Eton. / Hundreds of people came from all parts of the country ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ for the occasion, and many a score failed to gain admittance to the Cathedral.
