

America's Candidates for the Presidency --- Governor Landon tells enthusiastic Ohio audience about money rproblems.

No less enthusiastic are those who hope to bring back Roosevelt in the coming election --- and Franklin D. talks to them about trust.
SKATING.

The winter season of skating opens --- in the Berlin Sports Palace an exhibition of grace and rhythm was a pleasant diversion from international politics. The experts whose brilliance is more dazzling than the spotlight, are Ernest Baier and Maxie Herber --- Olympic Champions.

TENNIS.

Berkeley California --- Tennis Finals --- Helen Wills Moody and Helen Jacobs faced each other once again --- the greatest feminine sports rivals in history. It's the Pacific Coast Doubles, and the ~~fix~~ first meeting of the two champions since they fought out the Wimbledon Finals in 1935. Miss Jacobs to-day is partnered with Henry Culley, Mrs Moody with Donald Budge. Budge is now serving to Culley in the ~~fix~~ final game of the match. Little Helen of the striped shorts pulled out her finest form determined to beat the jinx that Mrs Moody puts on her, but it was not to be. Here comes the deciding point. . . .and it goes to Helen Wills Moody once again. Well played Helen. Hard luck Helen!
