DUKE OF KENT .

His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent whose title is also the Earl of St Andrews, paid a visit to St Andrews University to receive the degree of Doctor of Law. Ztudents had been granted a holiday ~~on~~ <sup>in</sup> honour of the occasion. The Duke id the fourth member of the Royal Family to receive a degree from St Andrews.

No less enthusiastic was the reception at Scarborough, where the Duke performed the opening ceremony at the new Hospital, built at a cãst of 130,000 pounds. After the opening the Royal visitor made a tour pf the wards.

BIRMINGHAM CARNIEAL.

Carnival day at Birmingham --- a brilliant procession through the streets was witnessed by thousands of the city's inhabitants. It was designed to bring them out and make them easy victims for the collectors with their tin boxes --- but as the collection was for charity nobody minded.
