CIANO AND HITLER.

In his country estate in the Bavarian Mountains Herr Hitler received Count Ciano, Italy's Foreign Minister and son-in-law of Signor Mussolini. With the Italian visitor were Baron von Neurath, German Foreign Minister (in civilian clothes) and Herr von Ribbentrop, who has since arrived in London as Ambassador to England. What do the stars reveal about the future of Dictators?

CAMBRIDGESHIRE.

And now to Newmarket for one of the greatest and nearly the last of the season's flat races --- the race that brings thousands to the course and changes the ownership of a million pounds, and more. . . . the Cambridgeshire. Stakes - with a field of 22 A biggish field of 22 went up to the start. start Only a fairly good getaway, but Tempest II, ~~Regatta~~, much-fancied Finalist and the previous winner Commander III all got away nicely. By the dip Laureat II and Daytona and Finalist were much in evidence but watch for the black and gold hoops of Tommy Weston on Dan Bulger --- ~~Tommy Weston has been up before the stewards but was~~ than ~~honourably acquitted.~~ ~~newxxxxgoingxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Coming to the end of the mile-and-a-furlong gallop --- nearing the finish --- Weston pushed Dan Bulger along at terrific speed --- ahead of Laureat II and Daytona into first place --- Dan Bulger won the Cambridgeshire ~~Stakes~~ by Two Lengths!
