near Tokyo

Emperor Hirohito reviews troops. There isn't anything very new or newsy in that, of course. He often does it. But these pictures become news in view of the increasing tension that has developed between Japan and China. If trouble comes, Japan means to be ready for it.

STORKS DERBY.

There's another kind of battle going on in Canada --- the Stork Derby where prolific parents are competing for a huge prize of money offered for the biggest family raised in ten years. The Timlecks and the Nagles are two families in the running, and they <sup>pay calls</sup> ~~call~~ upon each other. A certain Mr Millar left the money for the contest and being a bachelor he probably saw the joke. <sup>also</sup> Being a lawyer he probably saw the snag ~~also~~.

WEDDING.

The bride arrives at St Margarets --- and romantic London ladies go scampering to see a show that never loses its popularity. This was the wedding of Miss Helen Perrott and Viscount Maitland, and there was such a crush the little attendants had to be carried to safety. Now, Now, Now!

KING'S HOCKEY.

Interviewed by camera, at Hurst Park --- J. Crouch the young jockey who has been engaged to ride next year for His Majesty the King. Crouch is 21 and was apprenticed to Stanley Wootton.
