

BOMBAY .

~~297~~ 297 + 298

Bombay --- after a peaceful period comes into the riot news again. Muslims who threw stones arrested, Hindus who were hit escorted from the battle zone. / Armed police, Indian marines and even the Army called upon to maintain order while the streets after the riots were littered with broken bottles.

297

WRESTLERS.

Madison Square Boys Club, New York. They wrestle not for money and not for fame, but because they like it. / The referee referees not for fame and not for money but because he's crazy.

297

IRELAND v SCOTLAND.

Forty thousand spectators watched the Belfast clash between Ireland and Scotland, and an excellent game was served up to them. The half time score was one all, but in the second half Scotland put on the pressure and won by three goals to one.

298

AMERICAN SHIPPER

A cripple limps up the Mersey. Violent storms in the Irish Sea carried away the rudder of a United States Line Steamer the American Shipper, and tugs had to be sent out to bring her in to Birkenhead. Gales blowing at 75 miles an hour made the work of approaching and towing the American Shipper almost impossible --- but they did it.

297

OPENING SCOUTS H.Q.

Lord Somers, the Deputy Chief Scout, presided at the Middlesbrough and District opening of the new Headquarters. An important part of the ceremony consisted of the planting of trees, but disaster overtook a young enthusiast who had a game of knock knock with the worms.

267 297