

MUSSOLINI.

298

Il Duce once more assumes the role of labourer. In opening up a new road in Rome certain buildings had to come down and Mussolini shattered the obstruction with a stroke of the pick.

Now a dignified procession --- the <sup>14th</sup> anniversary of the Fascist march on Rome which made Mussolini dictator. Medals were presented to warriors or their widows and the day concluded with Italians in their thousands cheering outside the palace of the man whom they now call Founder of the Empire.

CARMARTHEN HUNT.

When Miss Kate Lewis went up to London for the Dairy Show, the Hunt promised that if she won the beauty competition a special meet would be held in her honour. She did win it, and here is the meet held in fulfilment of the promise. Miss Lewis is daughter of a local farmer, and she works every day on the farm. She also believes in plenty of milk as a means to health and beauty, and she certainly is a good advertisement for it.

CHRISTMAS PIE.

An appeal for a worthy charity --- If you buy a copy of Christmas Pie you will be helping to build up the King George's Jubilee Trust Fund for poor children. ~~Sixpence means so little to you perhaps, but so much to them.~~
