

NEUSEL AND FOORD.

299

Northaw, Middlesex --- the British and Empire Heavyweight Champion Ben Foord, in training. Foord will meet Walter Neusel at Harringay ^{Stadium} in a contest that looks like being the best since Neusel beat Petersen.

MYSORE PAGEANT.

Mysore --- a state ^{occasion} in one of the richest of the little ~~kingdom~~ kingdoms of India. Infantry, cavalry and elephants ----- that is part of the pageant that will greet King Edward when he visits India after the Coronation.

DUKE OF KENT.

Cardiff --- His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent had a rousing welcome when he performed the opening ceremony of the Sully Hospital. After inspections and a chat with local ex-servicemen --- including a local V.C. hero --- the Duke paid a visit to the National Museum of Wales.

SAFETY GLASS.

Sydney --- a demonstration of a new safety glass for cars. McCabe, the Australian cricketer, tries a hand at it ----- Looks like the very thing for the new tea service!

TWO WHEEL CAR.

London --- demonstration of a new car with two wheels. The inventor made it rock to show it isn't any good for a thin man with a fat wife or vice versa. Unfortunately he made it rock so well the gongsters thought he was drunk.
