

FRISCO-OAKLAND BRIDGE.

304

San Francisco --- a new bridge ~~built~~ across the 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles to Oakland and the Governor performed the opening ceremony. \wedge Boats shriek a welcome and police sirens answer as the first traffic comes across.

SCIENTIST.

Pasadena, California --- Dr Carl Anderson won the Nobel Prize for Physics. Here's what he did it with and how he did it. ~~Thank you,~~
we all
~~Dr Anderson~~ --- now ~~we~~ understand.

BOULDER DAM SPEEDBOATS.

Nevada --- wonderful Boulder Dam which has ~~be~~ formed the biggest man-made lake in the world, is used for a speedboat regatta. Surrounding grand ~~dar~~ looks down upon the efforts of tiny man to amuse himself.

CANADIAN ARMISTICE.

Ottawa --- Canada remembered her War Dead at the nation's Cenotaph. \wedge
At eleven o'clock reverent crowds were gathered in silent homage as Lord Tweedsmuir, the Governor General placed a wreath of poppies at the foot of the memorial.

SHEEP SHEARING.

New South Wales --- sheep shearing time at Lake Victoria Wentworth, and the flocks made their annual trip to the sheds where the little lambs said good-bye to Mother. \wedge If you feel sorry for the sheep, feel also sorry for the men whose backs are breaking at the end of eight-hour ~~stretches~~ stretches. The work leaves the shearer dead beat, but for the sheep Spring has come!
