WEDDING OF MISS PEEL.

Bridesmaids hurried on foot to the little church across the way at Chandlers' Ford --- for the wedding of Miss Grace Mary Peel, daughter of the Commodore of the Cunard White Star Fleet. The Bridegroom was Dr G.E.M. Turner. The Hampshire home is conveniently near Southampton for Captain R.V. Peel is successor to Sir Edgar Britten of the Queen Mary.

MACLEAN FUNERAL.

A thirteenth century castle high upon a rock by the Firth of Lorn --- in this almost mediaeval setting died Sir Fitzroy MacLean. Sir Fitzroy was 101 years of age and his life's record of active service read like the pages of a history book. ~~Entering the Light Dragoons as Cornet as long ago as 1852 his career was carved through the Crimea, Alma and Sebastopol.~~ <sup>His Army Service 1852</sup> At the close of his vigorous ~~and Spartan~~ <sup>Scottish</sup> life the chief of the great clan will lie with his ancestors on the Island of Mull.

SIR BASIL ZAHAROFF.

Death also has claimed Sir Basil Zaharoff whose life of mystery ended in its eighty-seventh year. Sir Basil lived mostly on the ~~continent~~ continent and his trade was armaments. He sold the implements of war to nations whose fear of each other made them only too eager to buy his wares. ~~The fortune which he built upon the battlefields of the world is estimated in many millions.~~ <sup>whose</sup> Now death has claimed the man ~~who walked~~ with kings and statesmen because his merchandise was the passport of death.
