

ENGLAND v HUNGARY.

306

England and Hungary met in a football international at Highbury, and a crowd of fifty thousand ~~watched the match.~~ Saw the match with the boys. ~~The weather was dull and the going heavy,~~ but in spite of this the play was fast and furious.

England were the team in white shirts and blue shorts. ~~England scored the first goal, and then Titkos replied for Hungary,~~ a terrific smash by Smith ~~There were a~~ all his team-mates ~~affectionate congratulations for the goal scorer, but~~ absolutely loved him for it. Unfortunately the visitors couldn't keep up the pace and England won by six goals to two.

NEGRO FOOTBALL MATCH.

But here's a real novelty --- a football game in Norfolk, Virginia played between coloured high school teams. The play reached a high standard and the runs through were almost good enough for the finest matches in America --- but in a negro game it's the spectators who really get hot.
