They got the goals --- they're getting the goalposts --- and e going to get the splinters.

LAUNCH.

At the Brooklyn Yard New York carries on with Uncle Sam's Navy programme. Mayor La Guardia was there to see the bottle smashing ~~Miss~~ --- sending the new ten thousand ton Treaty Cruiser down to the sea. The Navy has just beaten the Army in the football game and now a nice new boat!
this! Navy's on top of the world!

U.S. CHRISTMAS PARADE.

3 Santa Claus looks down genially upon the tall towers of Manhattan as the giants of Never-Never Land invade the big city. New York business men say it's the most prosperous Christmas season since the great depression, but the kiddies from East Side and West Side don't care just so long as it's Christmas. This is New York's way of giving a Christmas forecast. Just before Christmas you walk on air --- after Christmas you have to live on it.
