

TROTting ON ICE.

New England's famous river frozen over makes a track for country sportsmen who send their trotting thoroughbreds out over the ice --- roughshod racing and a miracle of grace and speed.

~~New York~~ A miracle of grace and speed.

I'm sorry --- that has nothing to do with trotting. It's the New York Ice Follies --- and following the comic horse comes a charming hoops ballet. And now the most daring feat ever attempted on the ice. Heinie Brock is the only man who can do it. Even he can't do it. Let's go on with the ballet. And now the most daring feat ever attempted on the ice. Don't take any notice --- look at the beautiful ballet of the wings.

And now -----
