

SNOW ETC.

323

And of course it was Mia where they invented this game. If it was played on land it would be something like baseball, if it was more like baseball.

And last but not least a hundred per cent bathe featuring Wheeler and Woolsey. Apparently he doesn't believe in mixed bathing, but he couldn't say no to a pretty girl. ~~Down to the~~ ~~in short sharp pants he goes to be~~ sunk with all hands and a cigar --- a total wreck.
