

DOG CARRIER.

323

The latest idea from Paris gives safe transport to Fido when he's out shopping --- a combined harness and handle turns the parlour pet into ~~an~~ a four-legged suitcase. Not recommended as a picnic basket. Said to be the perfect remedy for dog-fights.

Also in the animal news this week is a new giraffe. He's five days old and already he's fairly steady on his legs. That being the case we'll take him to watch the circus at Taronga Park, where Lancashire Mack is doing his stuff. The monkey's antics cause roars of laughter from the kiddies --- and the kiddie giraffe joins in.

LOUISE LYMAN.

Twenty year old Louise Lyman is America's Queen of Beauty, so ~~the~~ Garmont British News ~~called~~ called on her at the Savoy ~~Hotel~~ to see how she felt about London.

MODEL OF THE QUEEN MARY.

Making her maiden voyage on the Long Pond Clapham Common --- the giant Cunarder Queen Mary --- or to be more accurate, a model of the famous Blue Riband-holder. She is driven by an electric motor, <sup>and</sup> ~~but~~ ~~the small boys asked so many questions you couldn't have heard the~~ ~~resulting.~~ As she sails away planes roar overhead. But that's a flight of fancy too, for this is Maroubra, New South Wales. Competition is for the Wakefield Trophy ~~and they fly through the air~~ ~~and land with the greatest of ease.~~ Look out there! Here is a giant air liner about to take off on a --- whoa, Emma! But here is Exhibit A --- a Leviathan of the skies --- the pride and joy of its young owner. ~~Let's hope he'll soon have another birthday,~~
