

SKI-ING.

324

The Alps --- Footslogging for the Alpine soldier is just like a winter sports holiday for the rich ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ civilian, except that he carries a gun. At Mont Revard the troops took time off to hold a championship, but it was still just a busman's holiday.

BOBSLED.

Garmisch --- This might be the Army's mechanised unit --- but it's the bobsled championship. One of the most exhilarating of all sports --- requiring the quickest eye --- the strongest nerve --- the toughest neck.