

TRAINING SHIP.

But as long as there is sea there will be seamen --- so by way of compensation comes also from America the story of a visiting training ship. She hails from Finland --- a windjammer with a crew of officers, men and cadets. In spite of the sea's dangers there will always be youngsters to whom the siren's call of adventure is irresistible.

DEATH OF SIR AUSTEN CHAMBERLAIN.

It is with great regret that we record the death of Sir Austen Chamberlain --- famous member of a family of famous statesmen. ~~His dignified bearing stamped him inevitably as a product of the old school of politician, and his manner was as distinguished as his record achievements.~~ He had held many offices, including that of Foreign Secretary, and it was in 1925 that he signed the Treaty of Locarno on behalf of Britain. ~~Sir Austen had also been Chancellor of the Exchequer, Leader of the House and Secretary for India.~~ In latter years he had taken a less active part in Government, although he remained in the House of Commons as member for B Birmingham West.

Launch of La Argentina

This Argentine Training Cruiser was launched at Barrow with religious ceremony conducted by Father Beahan, prior to the actual launching ceremony by ~~Mrs. Malbran~~ by Madam Malbran, representing the wife of the President