

PRINCESS ROYAL.

Giving a royal start to the rebuilding, ~~Her~~ ~~Rm~~ the Princess Royal visited the Great Ormond Street Hospital for Sick Children. After passing through a guard of honour of nurses, Her Royal Highness entered the hall in which she was to lay the foundation stone for the new edifice which will cost half a million pounds. Of all the charities patronised by our royal family, this which cares for ailing children is very near to their hearts --- the ~~Princess~~ Princess Royal herself is President. As she toured through the wards, stopping for a cheery word with the little patients who sat wide-eyed in their beds, Her Royal Highness was presented with a bunch of violets. ~~by~~ One of the nurses at this hospital is the daughter of the Emperor of Abyssinia.

KING.

In South London His Majesty the King paid a visit to the tenants on the estate of the Duchy of Cornwall. It was the occasion of the six hundredth anniversary of the granting of the Charter to the Duchy. ~~At the Christ Church Boys' Club His M~~ ~~Majesty was greeted by the Mayor of Lambeth and afterwards went~~ ~~watched a display of boxing and gymnastics.~~ Among the tenants at Denny Crescent His Majesty planted a tree in commemoration of his visit. At the Old Tenants' Hostel His Majesty greeted tenants who filed past --- watched by the solemn eyes of his people in Kennington.

Lawrence J. ...