

CAPRICORNUS.

On a hillside in France the Empire Flying Boat Capricornus crashed, killing four of the crew and one passenger. Bit from the Atlantic flying base other air liners will set out and air travel will become safer each succeeding year. So while we deplore the heavy price of progress we look forward to a lessening of the risk with confidence ~~and~~ with each new air liner

TROOPS.

The S.S. Lancashire brought home officers and men of the ^L Royal North Lancashires and the Gordon Highlanders, after 18 years' service abroad. / And the S S Oransay brought over 150 Australians --- for the Coronation. / In London the diggers marched through the streets, accompanied by the band of the Brigade of Guards.
