BONDI LIFEGUARDS.

On famous Bondi Beach, the annual competition and parade of Australian lifeguards. This fine body of men looks after the swimmers in the popular coast resorts, for the surf is beautiful but dangerous. On this day they all come to Bondi for the championship, so if a bather wants help on some other beach it's going to be just too bad.

SYDNEY SHOW.

And now the land show --- Sydney Agricultural Show attended by the Governor General. All the finest livestock in the Commonwealth is here to be admired, and the bullocks are almost as beautiful as the lifeguards. Australian sunshine brings out many a little equestrienne and the jumping display was as neat as ever. Climax of the show --- Alice Ward hitting the saddle hard and often.

CAVALRY AT CANNES.

And as part of the festival at Cannes this year, the famous cavalry of Saumur riding school. Here's where the mechanized army has nothing on the cavalry --- you can't train a tank to do this.
