

256

CORK MOTOR RACING.

Many famous drivers took part in the motor racing at Cork, but the conditions were all against good times. Rain fell in a torrential downpour throughout the race, making cornering slow and hazardous. H B Erestwich was the winner, averaging 76.33 miles an hour.