ETON AND HARROW .

The clerk of the weather displayed more caprice than Dame Fashion during a week of sporting events, ~~and those who were dressed most attractively for the great schools match at Lord's ran a terrible risk of ruined frocks.~~ ^{and there was a big} ~~The Duchess of Gloucester was among the spectators.~~ [^] But Mother and Sister must be becomingly gowned for the Eton and Harrow match --- if they let the old chap down it'd put him off his feed. A lot of people who watch the cricket ----- which, by the way, resulted in a win for Eton --- do so from coached, which helps to make it picturesque. But soon it came on to rain and they had to put up their umbrellas. Oh, it did rain. ↗

WOMEN'S TEST .

Australia batted first in the third Women's Test at the Oval, prominent among them being Miss Holmes, Mrs Peden, Miss Antonio and miss catches. Australia won the first Test and England won the second. The umpire won the third by a short head and the rain played out time. /

LACROSSE.

There wasn't much rain at the White City lacrosse match, but some of the players came prepared to swim for it. The match was between Britain and America, and America won easily because Britain couldn't get the ball in the goal. It's really quite a big goal, only you can't see much of it. / The game itself is a cross between hunt the thimble and bringing home the shopping --- Where is it? Where is it? Where is it? It's gone to earth! Now they'll have to smoke it out. /
