Later, on the Rugby football ground at Murrayfield, the King and Queen attended a rally of 23,000 young Scots. Boys Brigades, Girl Guides, Girls' Guildry and Boy Scouts were all represented --- two from each organization being presented to their Majesties, and giving them posies and buttonholes. Then listen to the cheers that went winging to the skies as the royal car drove through the packed ground. EASTBOURNE CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE.

They call it a concours d'elegance --- the eighth annual assembly of all the cars with the best appearance and the most polish, with the Mayor presenting the awards. Competitors enter from all parts of the world, and one of them was Tommy Farr who nearly made a hit with the police. ~~These heavyweights nowadays show all about how~~
~~it's a thing of beauty. Attractive lines and gleaming chromium~~
~~make them almost as glamorous as a silver star.~~ This rally puts to shame all owners who only have the old bus cleaned just before it rains. ~~For the man proud, this rally is a disgrace.~~ Wheels, bonnets and owners are all spick and span as can be ~~and everything is~~ peak --- who cares about that anyway? Urgh!
