

Wandsworth was gaily decorated and its population presumably had the afternoon off when Queen Mary arrived to open the new Municipal buildings. Her Majesty was welcomed by the Mayor, Councillor W.H.Heath, J. P. , who is otherwise famous as the world's dancing champion. But to-day, of course, he was not even hesitating. Queen Mary opened the new building by unlocking the Main Entrance door, through which she entered to inspect the proposed Infant Welfare Centre.

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF KENT AT CANTERBURY?

The Duke and Duchess of Kent ~~XXXX~~ attended the Kent County Agricultural Society's Show in the Old Park, Canterbury. ----- a show which included a jumping contest, as well as an exhibition of cattle and machinery. With the royal visitors in the box was His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.

DUCHESS OF GLOUCESTER AT LIVERPOOL.

Hundreds of business girls cheerfully went without their lunch in order to greet Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester at the Liverpool Town Hall. They were also rewarded with the spectacle of a police horse who though he was Tommy Farr. The royal visitor was received by Lord and Lady Sefton, and Lord Derby. The Earl of Sefton conducted the Duchess round the grounds on this first day of the three-day fete held in aid of the Royal Southern Hospital, and purses were presented to Her Royal Highness by three Chinese children. One of ~~THE PURSES~~ them contained the sum of £120 --- the purse, ~~2~~ ~~---~~ not the child.