

TERRITORIALS BATHING PARADE.

377

In the Army of yesterday you had to footslog no matter how hot it was, but now that's all changed, <sup>and conditions for all ranks promise to be much better</sup> Whether it's the ~~influence~~ influence of Mr Hore Belisha or not it's hard to say, but the sergeant-major has ~~gone~~ all bathing bells. ~~It's the same as the Queen's Royal Regiment at "Coburg".~~ <sup>as you were</sup> About time! Fall In!

WOMEN'S A.A.A.

Fifteenth Annual Championships of the Women's ~~A.A.A.~~ <sup>Amateur</sup> Athletic Association. The 80 metres hurdles gave us a thrilling race ^ one competitor crashed but the others showed fine form and the ~~winner~~ winner was Barbara Burke. / Next item --- throwing the bodkin. People used to laugh at Women's Sports Meetings, but they don't any more. Miss Lunn was a worthy winner. / The crack event of the day was the ~~sixteen~~ sixteen hundred metres walking championship --- and we present a study in styles of all the girls who meant to get there. / The winner of the walk was Miss F. Pengelley of Paignton --- but although the others couldn't win as well they all showed their determination. / <sup>Women are getting more and more interested in sport and exercise</sup> <sup>they go in for serious training</sup> and they take it up with astonishing vigour. / Not only cycling, but horse-riding too ^ Giddap! / And after vigorous exercise be sure you take a bath --- but lock the door, or you might be surprised by a cameraman! /
