

AMERICA.

Here's a car you can lead to the water, AND make it drink'.

See how this ace of stunt drivers thrills a holiday crowd! He's emerged alive & ~~it's~~ it's worth getting a ducking to be comforted afterwards.

LONDON.

A picturesque August wedding took place at Westminster Cathedral when Miss Elizabeth Chance, formerly engaged to Captain Julius Caesar, was married to Mr John Anquatil Norman. The bride wore a becoming gown of ivory figured marocain, with an unusual headdress of berries & leaves of frosted glass, holding a full tulle veil.

ATHLETIC PARADE.

In the Stadium at Paris, the 57th annual meeting of International Gymnastic Societies was held. Over 12,000 spectators watched with keen interest the performances of the ^{VARIOUS} ~~several~~ teams. The mass display of every nation was a triumph of ^{organization} ~~organization~~.

CLACTON CARNIVAL.

The air at this famous resort seems to bear good results, judging by this monster baby show. Following on the quest for the Ideal Man Gaumont British News looked for the ideal father, & ^{HERE HE IS}

~~the experienced Mr. Father James~~

This seems a never ending job so let's have a look at one of the prize winners. Their office wives - they'll never win a prize.