

TROTting.

The trotting races at Goshen New York are as truly American as corn on the cob. It's the Kentucky Derby of Harness-racing and it brings out all the homey folks who love racing for its own sake. There's money in this game too --- a purse of 40,000 dollars awaits the winner but it's the picture of thoroughbred action that counts to-day. Slow motion shows them perfectly trained, perfectly handled, stepping proudly to victory. And here's an exciting finish. De Sota was favourite but the white-clad driver nearer the stand ~~pulls~~ is pulling up to win --- an outsider gives that extra burst of speed to pass the post in front.
