

TENNIS.

America's men's doubles title was at stake when Budge and Mako the world champions met Jarvis and Mulloy at Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts. And now see the champions on the far side of the net, in the finest rally ever filmed in tennis. Budge settled the account, and he and Mako went on into the final.

ST. DUNSTAN'S.

Ovingdean --- at a cost of £105,000, St Dunstan's new home for the Blind ~~xxxxxBrighton~~ is being erected on the coast near Brighton. The widow of the founder of this wonderful institution laid the foundation stone, while Captain Ian Fraser presided.

ISLE OF MAN.GRAND PRIX.

Isle of Man --- the world's ace motor cyclists took part in the Manx Grand Prix over the T.T. course full of bends and bumps and bridges. There were two sections --- Junior and Lightweight. The winner of the Junior was M. Cann with a speed of 76.23 miles an hour, and the winner of the Lightweight was D.Parkinson. Go on --- kiss him. They always do. He can't take it.

TWINS.

Fort Wayne --- fifteen hundred pairs of twins assembled for a contest open to all America. They say that twins occur once in every hundred births --- so anybody who's up in the nineties had better look out. They elected kings and queens in this land where everybody saw double and --- oh, look! It's quads!
