

MISS AMERICA.

Atlantic City is the Brighton of the United States, but you couldn't sit in these chairs three hours for threepence. This was the 1937 contest to find Miss America. The girls who take part are from all different states, but the men who look on are all in one state.

There's beauty too in old Virginia --- on the trail of the lonesome pine the South Boston Belles celebrated the tobacco festival. Looks like a pretty good crop this year.

Kipling wrote --- A woman is only a woman but a good cigar is a smoke,

~~but most men prefer a pipe~~

~~but you get~~

but a pipe is much more
