

DOG AUCTION.

Virginia --- at Fredericksburg they hold the only dog-auction in the world, and all the children for miles around come to pick up a pup for a dollar. Every kind of dog is represented from a Chow to a Ruritanian Cakhound. The man who does the selling has a patter all his own, but maybe the dogs understand it. If you make a move now, you'll probably find you've bought the auctioneer.
