AIR RAID BLACK OUT.

Gravesend --- air raid precautions are in full swing, and here is a rehearsal of a black-out. Street lights were extinguished and homes were plunged in gloom, while ambulance squads, police and firemen, put in some good work, on imaginary victims. At present they can't decide whether air-raid precautions ought to be paid for by local authorities or by the Government. But it doesn't matter much because ^{you} ~~we~~ pay for it anyway.

NIGHT FLIGHT OVER NEW YORK?

New York --- not a black-out, but our roving cameraman roving over the city of skyscrapers by night. Specially treated film, enabled him to secure these remarkable pictures of Baghdad on the subway. Broadway --- Park Avenue --- and ~~Times Square~~ 42nd Street waking up for the evening's round of pleasure.

GORDON RICHARDS.

Windsor --- Gordon Richards had ridden 199 winners this season when he went out for the first race of this meeting. After four consecutive losers he had a mount on Portefeuille --- and he won in the fifth race. So this great little man of the Turf achieved once again the coveted 200. Well done, Gordon.

POPE.

over 80 years of age ---
Castle Gandolfo --- His Holiness the Pope is in good health once more after his long and serious illness. Here he is leaving his summer residence to return to the Vatican.
