

ADMISSION OF THE LORD MAYOR .

This is probably the most interesting ceremony in connection with London's Lord Mayor Elect. . . . . the admission, which takes place inside the historic Guildhall. After taking the oath Sir Harry Twyford signs the Declaration. The Mace, with other symbols of the office, is handed over by the outgoing Lord Mayor Sir George Broadbridge, to the incoming Lord Mayor. The ceremony over, former Lord Mayors and other officers congratulate the new Chief Magistrate of the City of London. This is the official admission of the new Lord Mayor, preceding the splendour and pageantry of the Lord Mayor's Procession.

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW.

This year the theme of the Lord Mayor's Show was Empire Industries, and the tableaux included represented all parts of the Empire. So past St Paul's and Ludgate ~~Street~~ Hill the long procession wound its way to the Law Courts, where Sir Harry Twyford took over his office from Sir George Broadbridge, to be Lord Mayor for the ~~coming year~~.
