

ICE SKATING.

Champions on the ice * - The most graceful of all sports, which is gaining an increasing hold in public favour had its high spot at this meeting. The pairs title went to Mr and Mrs H.T.Cliff, the holders. The men's title went to Graham Sharp, also the holder. Most popular item of all --- the women's ~~single~~ championship. Megan Taylor gave a wonderful display and nearly took the title, but she lost on a small margin of <sup>points</sup> ~~points~~. Once again, the holder took the championship. Superb Cecilia Colledge whirled her way to victory for another year --- ~~Britain~~ Britain's Queen of the Ice.

All the winter sports take place indoors, nowadays. Even ski-jumping, at the Boston Carnival, was under cover. Indoor work is good training for beginners, and here they seem to be all beginners, except those that are finished. By this time everybody had forgotten those three buried in the hay. It's time they got up!
