CRICKET.

A testimonial match to Grimmett and Richardson at Adelaide coincides with the selection of Australia's Test men to visit England in the summer. Don Bradman is again the skipper, but We're relieved to hear that Clarrie Grimmett the slow bowler has been left out. Although he's forty five he's still much too good, and in this match he took Don's wicket. With Bradman out his team collapsed, leaving Victor Richardson's side only 184 to get. ~~---~~

Badcock, who is one of those chosen to come over, got 102 of them. Whew! Here's McCabe --- another visiting batsman --- he got a beautiful seventy-two. Whew! Victor Richardson was saying good-bye to first-class cricket, so it needn't cause any heartbreak that he scored 42. Ward is the slow bowler who has been chosen instead of Grimmett --- and he it was who took Clarrie's wicket. Fleetwood Smith is another bowler who'll be coming over --- he can get wickets too --- and to complete the team's training the match ended with a shower of rain. Just like dear old England!

Another ^{Summer} ~~spring~~ festival that has just happened in Australia ~~to give us further thoughts of summer~~ is Henley Regatta --- but it's Henley on the River Yarra, not on the Thames. From beautiful Australian girls, they chose this one as ~~Miss~~ Henley's Queen, and decorated canoes gave an added touch of colour to a scene of leisurely loveliness. And while feminine charm drifts lazily past, boats go rushing by full of horrid little boys in vests. I don't know why they allow it!
